Formal Dinner and History Talk
Saturday Night

We will go back in time to the year 1920 when our MEMBERS' LOUNGE was added to the inn by enclosing an open air dance floor in order to create a dining room. Previously, the HIKERS' LOUNGE had been a parlor and the only room for dining and socializing. The new dining room was opened with a dinner and dance on April 24, 1920. We are celebrating the 100-year anniversary of the MEMBERS' LOUNGE with two special events. Come for one or both nights. Reservations essential. Space is limited.

FRIDAY APRIL 24, 2020 FROM 6:30 - 9:00 PM

Revel in the year 1920 with a dance in the "dining room," games in the "parlor," nosh and "giggle water." Don your favorite WWI surplus gear or late Edwardian best for the 1920 Mt. Tam costume contest. Enjoy ragtime tunes, learn a new dance or play all night at your favorite parlor game. Hikers depart at 9:00 pm.
