PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Bob Newcomer

2017 continues to be a busy year. We have conducted successful Pancake Breakfasts and Work Parties in June, July, and August; the Emig Cabin passed inspection by the County allowing us to begin a 'soft launch' promotion of the cabin to the disability community; and our application for a permit to extend the deck was approved. More good news. In spite of some very hot, dry, and windy days we have had only three Red Flag Days through August. Unfortunately we are starting September with at least two Red Flag Days. While we have been fortunate so far, the weather conditions of these past few years have taken a toll on some of the trees around the inn. A tree leaning precariously over the inn has been removed. More troubling, the tree shading the water fountain was dying from a turpentine beetle infestation and had become a fire hazard. It too was removed. We will soon initiate a process for developing a landscape plan to replace these tree. Anyone interested in helping with this please contact Peter Martin Fire & Safety Committee chair.

Rattlesnake and ticks are a concern during the summer months. Our innkeepers are now briefing inn guests about these risks and how to minimize them. They are also using CDC recommendations for the "treatment" for these bites, but the primary response is to obtain EMT assistance immediately. The innkeepers also continue being a resource for visitors to the mountain who have medical emergencies. In this past quarter they have helped with bike injuries and heart conditions.

Other things of interest. OneTam has placed about 200 cameras all over the mountain to document wildlife and has been initiating youth oriented educational program about the mountain's ecology. The Board has begun discussing how WPIA might engage with some of the OneTam efforts. If you are interested in helping with this please contact me.

Finally, I would like to thank to Gordon Edwards for his fine Innkeeper service to the inn. He has left us to pursue other interests. I'd also like to acknowledge John Kassner, one of our last full time innkeepers. He is fondly remembered by those who knew him. John passed away July 16 after an extended illness. There is an obituary later in this Newsletter.

EMIG CABIN RIBBON CUTTING CELEBRATION OCTOBER 15TH!

A ribbon-cutting ceremony for our new state-of-the-art wheelchair accessible cabin has been scheduled for October 15th immediately following the Members Meeting and before we sit down to lunch. Champagne will be served. Looking forward to seeing you there!

INNKEEPERS REPORT

Lin Marcuse

I want to once again thank our incredible crew of Innkeepers for all the hard work they do to keep the Inn a warm, safe and inviting place to visit. I don't know what we would do without the efforts of Pat Williams, David Durr, Alex Edwards, Peter Grazier and Jennifer Greene and Karl Jurgen-son. They truly are a remarkable crew!

I also want to thank Gordon Edwards for his many years of service. Gordon has left the Inn to pursue other opportunities, but his organizational skills will leave an impression for years to come. Thank you, Gordon! And, because of his absence, we are currently in process of bringing a couple more people on board. I hope to be able to introduce them to you in the next newsletter. However, if you see a new face on your next visit to the Inn, be sure to give them a warm welcome.

Finally, one request from our Innkeepers. Their first priority is guest safety. To that end, they keep a watch out for guest arrivals. If someone with a reservation doesn't arrive by dusk, the Innkeepers start calling around looking for them. At a certain point, if the guests aren't located, the Innkeepers must assume they are possibly lost on the mountain. This then leads to calls to the sheriff and/or fire departments. That, depending on circumstances, could create a search and rescue response. So, bottom line, if you can't make your reservation PLEASE remember to call the Innkeeper at 415-388-9955 to let them know! Additionally, remember that MMWD rules require arrival by dusk.

ELECTION REPORT

Chris & Lin Marcuse

We want to congratulate the nominees for the Board of Directors, 2018-2020 term: Bonnie Jones, Wayne Koide and Johanna Sistek. They all bring a wealth of experience and love for the Inn to keep it the special place we all hold dear. You will receive their personal statements and a ballot later this month. If you haven't received your packet by September 25, please contact us at elections@westpointinn.com. Please remember to insure your ballot reaches the Inn prior to the start of the Fall Meeting on October 15 at 11 AM.

The Board has also put on the ballot a Bylaw Amendment to finish cleaning up the election process. As Wayne wrote in the last newsletter, changes to the Bylaws a few years ago led to an unbalanced Board election cycle. To that end, the proposed amendment would restore the original election process where three directors would be elected each year to a three-year term (leading to a 1/3 change over each year). Additionally, if approved, the amendment would remove the re-election clause. So, the process would return to its original form of a director serving for three years before being required to take a one-year hiatus before they could serve again. The proposed Amendment will be included in your election packet.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

HOW TO SIGN UP OR VOLUNTEER FOR WEST POINT INN EVENTS

Hello Members,

Here are our latest new members:

Caroline McDowell & Creedence Perkins of Piedmont
Mark Cavagnero of Mill Valley
Michael Levinson of Mill Valley
Morgan Barclay-Collier of San Francisco
Rosalind Jackson of San Francisco
Kathy Harris of Mill Valley

Kathy Harris wrote: I've lived in Tam Valley for the last 20 years. I am a spiritually focused counselor with a private practice. I lead two women's groups; one is a year-long group and the other 6 months. I love facilitating groups. Until recently for 12 years I lead two groups for the men in San Quentin every Monday.

I delight in backpacking in the Sierra. Thrilled I'll be backpacking in Hetch Hetchy for my 68th birthday in a few weeks.

Locally most mornings before work I ride my bike from home out to Tennessee Valley Beach and then climb up a peak to the south. Here I do chigong, meditation and prayers. It's a wonderful way to start my days. I am so grateful to our fore-mothers and fathers for conserving so much of Marin. More than 85% is open space. I am fed by hiking on Mt. Tam and throughout Marin.

PANCAKE BREAKFASTS

Gordy MacDermott & Lin Marcuse

We are heading into the home stretch of another great pancake season. We want to thank all the hosts and crews, especially those that worked in some incredibly HOT conditions this year. Without you, these events would not be the successful fundraisers that keep the Inn going!

The remaining breakfast & clean-up crews are either full or nearly there. However, sometimes people drop out for one reason or another. So, if you would like to volunteer (or be placed on a wait list), please email us at pancakes@westpointinn.com and we will forward your contact information to the appropriate host(s).

The remaining Pancake Breakfast dates are:

September 10

Breakfast: Bob Newcomer & Gordy MacDermott

Clean-up: Marilyn Skaff

October 8

Breakfast: Pat Kavanaugh

Clean-up: Megan Agosto

SUMMER CORN SOUFFLE

Fran Rondeau

This is an easy to make satisfying Summer or Fall dish. I first made it at a cooking class at Green Gulch and have made it many times since.

Ingredients :

- bread crumbs 1/2 cup
- 6 ears corn-(6cups) 3 frozen and 3 cooked and cut off the cob
- 1 c milk
- 1 c cream
- 6 eggs
- 1/4lb white cheddar (or any grate-able cheese)
- 1T basil – chopped fresh is best
- salt and Pepper –at least 1 t of each

Directions :

- Butter a deep baking dish
- Sprinkle with bread crumbs and 1 t of garlic powder
- Use your cuisinart to purée the 3 cups of frozen corn with milk
- Whisk in cream, eggs and remaining fresh corn
- Stir in grated cheese and and spices
- Bake in hot water bath 1hour-350 F

Bon appétit !

GARDEN OF EATIN'

Kathleen Kopp

APB: Be on the lookout for 4" tall, 8" long, grey furred, beady eyed, cotton tailed critter.

Well, we have a new (uninvited) member of the West Point Inn Garden Committee. Witnesses concur it is a small, cute, grey bunny. He or she may have friends. We believe there has been some bunny gang related activity in the garden. We have experience looting of vegetables and carnage of plants.

We have increased security, but they seem to be a hop ahead of us, and the losses continue to mount. Their preferred victims have been the purple beans, which they have demolished, and the tomatoes, which they have cruelly chewed through the stems at ground level. There are few survivors.

We are formulating plans to strengthen the garden fortress from invaders.

The good news is the garden committee has donated 2 new red glass vintage hummingbird feeders to the garden. The garden bench is still inviting us to come and sit a while, enjoy the buzz of bees, beauty of butterflies, and hum of the hummingbirds.

WORK PARTY REPORT

Jennifer Barclay

HOT! Too bleeping hot.

August was the only WP this summer that was reasonable in temperature. It's been difficult to get volunteers to do the work of brush cutting because of the heat. We're behind in our goal to save our Inn in the event of a fire. So, if it cools down September and October and you want to get physical, please sign up.

August turn out was good enough; the same as every year with July and August being our lowest in head count (42) due to being vacation months. Despite the lower numbers in volunteers we had many expert-regulars showing early and ready to go. No lollygagging around and we got everything on the List-of-Things-To-Do done. I wish everyone could witness what I see accomplished each month, especially in the winter when it's cold and wet. The eagerness, willingness, comradely and smiles are infectious and bring me much joy.

Since Brenda Roberts is gone, the Work Party is taking on a few projects that are appropriate for us to do. We will be sending out bulletins before each WP looking for a specific skill-set in the upcoming months. Take a close at look them to see if you can help please.

I see the best of West Point Inn. Members and want-to-be's. It's such a delight blend. Come join us and see what I see.

Jennifer Barclay

OLD TIMERS' APPRECIATION PARTY

Marilyn Skaff

On June 3, a beautiful, warm day at the West Point Inn, the Old Timers' Appreciation Party was held. This is an annual event to honor long-time members of the Inn and to allow them an opportunity to see old friends, to reminisce about the old days, and to enjoy a party at the Inn. The timing of the event has changed from September to April, at the request of some of the Old Timers. (Last September, the party was cut short due to a red flag day.)

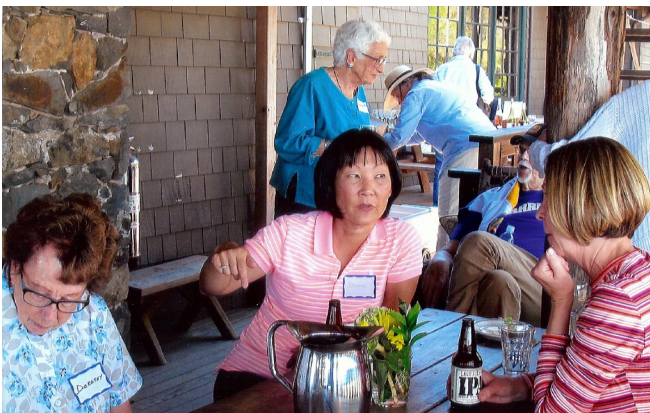

Festivities began at 3:00 in the afternoon, with drinks and hors d'oeuvres on the porch. Olene Sparks-Toby and Pierre Terrier were the gracious hosts and made sure everyone was well served. From the moment the party began, music was provided by our own bluegrass band made up of George Martin, Lynn Ludlow, and Margo Freistadt. They were joined by Lynn and Margo's daughter, Kenny, and her fiancée, Kevin, as well as a friend, Carolin Grannan.

At dinner time, it was still warm enough to remain outside, so guests enjoyed a wonderful meal on the porch, prepared by master chef, Jennifer Barclay. When the meal was finished, it was time for the annual story-telling and reminiscing. Our master of ceremonies, Carl Nolte has a talent for drawing out even the shyest member and eliciting wonderful stories. Most of the Old Timers shared their favorite memories and Marge Goody read aloud an article from an old newsletter, written by the Innkeeper at that time.

At the end of the evening, for those of us fortunate enough to stay overnight, the festivities continued in the members' lounge with music provided by Lynn, Margo, George, and Kenny. This was one of those very special times of camaraderie that remind us of the unique spirit of the Inn.

All of this wouldn't have been possible without the volunteer effort that went into it. My deep appreciation goes to Olene for taking lodging reservations, providing drinks, co-hosting the event in general. Pierre not only served drinks, but also did dishes after dinner. Jennifer outdid herself with dinner and Colleen Williams generously spent hours in the kitchen helping. Thanks to Pat Williams, the Innkeeper Extraordinaire, for all of his help and support, and to all the other participants who pitched in in the spirit of the Inn to help when there was work to be done.

This is an event to honor and celebrate long-time members, but is certainly not limited to only Old Timers. It is a wonderful opportunity for any member to meet long-time members who have helped build and support the Inn and to hear some of the oral history of the Association.

FIRE & SAFETY COMMITTEE

Pete Martin

Wildland fires have been burning throughout Western states from British Columbia to Mexico. Marin has been relatively lucky so far. In late June, the Marin IJ reported that Marin fire crews responded to a wildfire that scorched 38 acres in a remote area near Kent Lake, about 2 miles southwest of Woodacre. Nearly 100 fire personnel were on scene, helping extinguish flames as the fire slowly moved through grass and brush. Marin County fire crews deployed off-road fire engines, bulldozers and water tenders, and the county's Tamalpais Fire Crew provided ground support. One air attack plane, three air tankers and two helicopters belonging to Cal Fire dropped fire retardant. You can see by the overwhelming response that they take wildland fires in the mountains of Marin very seriously!

It has been 88 years since the devastating fire in 1929, destroyed 110 homes in Mill Valley, then spread up the southeastern slopes of Mountain, to just below the summit. 100 years ago, the Fern Canyon fire raged up the southern slopes of the mountain, starting somewhere near Muir Woods. The fire swept around West Point, and on toward East Peak. The Inn, survived with little or no fire protection; probably because the brush around the Inn, was only 2-feet high (see photo). Today however, is another story, since there has been no fire for nearly 100-years, the brush today averages to six, eight-feet high around the Inn! Add to that, an epidemic of juvenile and adolescent Douglas fir trees that are migrating past the Inn in a southeasterly direction. At some point, they will present an interesting challenge in terms of fire. Take a walk up the railroad grade toward the top of the mountain and observe the proliferation of fir trees sprouting up on both sides of the road.

What is West Point doing?

The Fire & Safety Committee is working to create Defensible Space*. The work involves thinning and reducing the volume of vegetation (fancy word for brush) within a 200-foot radius around the building complex. It is ongoing. We are currently working on the south-facing slope below the Inn. Take a look next time you are up.

Each year, the WPI Board budgets up to $5,000, and with assistance from MMWD, we are able to hire a professional crew for one week. With chainsaws and a chipper, they probably get as much in one week than our volunteers can do in 10 work parties. Between the chainsaw crew and our volunteer crews, we are gaining ground on that elusive 200-foot defensible space radius around the Inn.

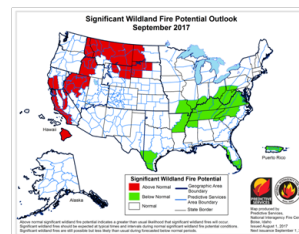

We have a small crew of dedicated members, and nonmembers led by Ed Poser & Ken Malvino. We always need a few more volunteers. Why don't you sign up to work with us at next month's work party.

In other news. Hazard and diseased tree removal. At the request of Ed Poser, an arborist came up to evaluate trees that we suspected had the potential to fail. He determined that a tree leaning over the roof was in danger of falling onto the roof and causing significant damage. The second tree, down in the picnic area was found to be infected by beetles and in imminent danger falling and possibly injuring someone. The trees were taken down and cut into rounds that will be split for firewood. With a significant number of trees removed over the last several years, there has been discussion about replacing them. We will be forming a landscape committee to develop a plan for replacement of few new trees around the Inn

*An area around structures where the vegetation is modified and maintained to slow the rate and intensity of an advancing wildland fire. It also provides room for firefighters to work.

WEST POINT INN DISPLAY CASE

Olene Sparks

Located below the stairs at the front of the Inn stands a large display case that has long been in need of serious repair. It has deteriorated over time to the point of being unusable. The front cannot be opened due to dry rot and hardware rust. The support posts likely have dry rot below ground. It was built in the early 80's.

The California Alpine Club Foundation (CACF) awards grants to environmental and conservation organizations for specific projects in need of funding that benefit and/or educate the public in the Bay Area which includes the Mount Tamalpais area. WPIA was invited to submit a proposal and did so in June for funding help to revive the display case. In August CACF announced that they would award WPIA the funds for repair/replacement.

The location of the display case can provide beneficial information to all who pass by - hikers, bicyclists, lodgers, WPIA members and other organizations.

MANY THANKS AND APPRECIATION TO THE CALIFORNIA

DEPARTURES

ERIN JEAN MCGUINNESS

Erin passed away April 12, 2017 at the age of 52. She lived on Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley and from there frequented the trails of Mt. Tamalpais for 35 years. Erin was the daughter of Will McGuinness and sibling to Jim, Max, Bill, Pony, Quintin, Ryan, Seamus and Tegan. The list of her extended family is long (Marin I.J. Obituary, April 19, 2017).

Erin became a member of the West Point Inn along with her friend, John Nichols, in 2013. He shares fond memories of participating in pancake breakfasts and work parties, in particular with rebuilding the stone path to the cabins. She loved being in cabin #10, sleeping outside and watching the moon rise through the fog. She enjoyed the after dinner gatherings with good conversation in the Inn's living room.

Erin was a nurse with a goal of helping others. She made people feel important and comfortable. She had an energetic and adventurous spirit, was passionate about diving, loved to hike, enjoyed traveling and encouraged others to experience the world.

John sums Erin up as "she positively affected everyone around her. Her presence will be missed".

Respectfully submitted by Olene Sparks

Donations in Erin's memory can be made to the West Point Inn.

JOHN KASSNER

Former WPIA Innkeeper, John died July 17, 2017 in Livonia, Michigan of Lewy Body's Dementia.

John graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in Radio and TV and a minor in computer programming. His background included being the youngest award winning film producer in Michigan. He did professional photography. He made films with family and friends. He became a private pilot. He was a free spirit who traveled all around the country, living in 6 different states. While in Montana he created and edited TV commercials. He was a nature lover and an avid hiker. Eventually he moved to California, discovered Mount Tamalpais and the West Point Inn and served as Innkeeper 2000 - 2007.

John is remembered with fondness by WPIA members who knew him. Memories include his excellent ability to play the piano "by ear" without being able to read sheet music, his friendly, fair personality and willingness to help whenever the need arose. He was kind to members, visitors to the Inn and then resident cat, Tinq. He was very close to his sister, Kimberly, also a WPIA member, who recalls the many times they played cards together at the Inn. He is survived also by sisters Krista and Karen and their extended family members.

Donations in John's memory can be made to the West Point Inn Association at the request of the family.

Respectfully submitted by Olene Sparks with input from Kimberly Kassner-Earley, WPIA Historian Fred Runner, Innkeeper Pat Williams, members Ed Poser, Tim Magee, Carolin Thurm, Kate Rowan, Ruth Rubin, Charlie Evans and others.
